PRODUCTION RIGHTS

Before producing or performing any play you must obtain the permission of the relevant rightsholder. Fees will vary according to the nature and scale of the proposed production. They are set at the discretion of the relevant rightsholder (usually the playwright or their agent). As a general guide, AustralianPlays.org recommends 10% of gross box office receipts or $100 per performance, whichever is greater, as the minimum fee for amateur production. Your production enquiry for this play may be submitted through the AustralianPlays.org website.

PERMISSIONS FOR SOUND RECORDINGS & MUSIC

Some playscripts will require specific published sheet music or sound recordings for which performing rights may need to be separately licensed. Producers are advised to contact the Australasian Performing Rights Association (APRA) for more information on music licensing requirements.

SARAH enters then leaves. The GHOST enters. SARAH re-enters and looks towards the pond. The GHOST watches SARAH as she brushes her hair back. She notices him then approaches.

SARAH Do you have any spare change?

GHOST Yeah sure.

(He fumbles in his pockets then gives her some coins.)

GHOST Here.

SARAH Is that all you have?

GHOST No I have more.

SARAH Well can I have some more?

GHOST Have the rest.

SARAH Thanks.

(She throws the coins into the pond.)

GHOST Do this often?

SARAH Yeah.

GHOST Must be a fortune down there.

(She throws another coin.)

GHOST I heard that in the old days they threw in slaves.

(She hands him the remaining coins.)

SARAH There. Maybe you should try.

(SARAH walks away.)

GHOST What throw in a slave? Is that what you're referring to?

(Silence.)

SARAH Do you have something to tell me?

GHOST Yeah.

SARAH What is it?

GHOST I don't know.

SARAH I think you're hoping that I'm here for you.

GHOST Crossed my mind.
